

Isram, Fimiani launch alliance

Published: 11/06/2008 - 15:26

HALLANDALE - Real estate executive Shai Moschowits has been named CEO of Hallandale-based Isram Realty Holdings has formed a strategic alliance with Fimiani Development Corp. in Boca Raton to actively pursue the acquisition and leasing of Class B shopping centers throughout Florida.

Prior to joining Isram Realty Holdings, Moschowits led the redevelopment of more than 25 retail properties at Woolbright Development and directed such key functions as asset, property and construction management, entitlements, acquisitions and capital structuring.

Isram Realty Holdings currently owns, leases and manages 1.5 msf of neighborhood and community shopping centers in Florida including Naples, Tampa, Bradenton, Jacksonville, Orlando and Merritt Island.

Michael Fimiani, founder and president of Fimiani Development Corp., has been named exclusive leasing agent for Isram Realty Holdings. Fimiani has been active in development and leasing of retail portfolios throughout the state for 20 years.